Dear Mr. Dyer,

Thank you for contacting FINRA's Office of Ombuds. Please note that FINRA is a private organization that oversees United States (U.S.) Broker Dealers under the supervision of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). FINRA's primary role is to protect investors and safeguard market integrity. The role of the Office of the Ombud is to address the concerns of FINRA's constituents.

Your email has been relayed to FINRA's National Cause and Financial Crimes Detection Program (NCFC) for review and may be forwarded to a different regulator if it's not within FINRA's jurisdiction.

You may file a complaint with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), who serves as the regulator for Farmland Partners Inc., the link for filing a complaint is available here: <https://www.sec.gov/oiea/Complaint.html>.

By way of background, FINRA's Office of the Ombuds provides a neutral and confidential forum for investors, member firms and their employees, and any other business or individual who interacts with FINRA to voice their concerns about operations, feel that the issue cannot be resolved through other channels may also contact the Ombuds' Office. Additional information can be found online at <https://www.finra.org/about/office-ombuds>.
