

The public corporate records and SEC filings for Farmland Partners Inc. (NYSE: FPI) confirm that the Forsythe group possessed a specific board-designation right following a massive asset acquisition transaction in 2016. s205.q4cdn.com +1

The Transaction and Board Right Overview

In late 2015 and early 2016, Farmland Partners Inc. entered into a major Contribution Agreement to acquire a massive institutional-grade farmland portfolio from Forsythe Family Farms, Inc. and its affiliates (controlled by Gerald R. Forsythe). SEC.gov +1

- The Right to Appoint a Director: As a central governance condition of this multi-million dollar acquisition, the transaction documents granted the Forsythe group the corporate right to designate a representative to serve on FPI's Board of Directors. This established formal governance authority and oversight rather than a standard, passive investment stance. SEC.gov +1
- The Appointee: Pursuant to these negotiated transaction terms, John C. Conrad was appointed to the Board of Directors of Farmland Partners Inc. on March 27, 2016, representing the governance presence of the transaction's contributors. s205.q4cdn.com

Key SEC Filings and Corporate Records

The specific contractual provisions and agreements securing this board seat are found within FPI's official corporate records filed with the SEC:

1. The Form 8-K Current Report (Filed November 11, 2015): This filing contains the original transaction blueprint outlining the governance arrangements and the initial Contribution Agreement (Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2) detailing the board-designation parameters. EDGAR Online +1
2. The Amendment No. 1 to the Contribution Agreement (Filed February 22, 2016): Filed as an exhibit to subsequent reports, this amendment finalized the structural closing mechanics, paving the way for the board transition. s205.q4cdn.com
3. The 2016 Annual Report (Form 10-K): Explicitly lists John C. Conrad as a director who assumed his seat on March 27, 2016, precisely matching the execution timeframe of the finalized Forsythe acquisition. EDGAR Online +1

Note: John C. Conrad actively exercised this governance oversight on the FPI board until his subsequent resignation on August 28, 2017, at which point FPI downsized its board from eight members to seven. Reuters

Would you like to track down the exact verbatim text of the director designation clause from the Exhibit 10.1 Contribution Agreement, or do you need further documentation regarding John C. Conrad's committee assignments and voting responsibilities during his tenure on the board?